Jesús Sánchez and Manuel Minguillón Nieto together are Delitiae Musicae. On this cd they play music by Guerrero, De Morlaye, Mudarra, De Victoria, Gombert, Dalza, Des Prez, De Narváez, De Morales, Lopez, Mendoza and De Valderrábano, besides some anonymous music. Most of the pieces are played on two vihuelas, but we can also hear Jesús and Manuel play on Renaissance guitar and lute in a few tracks, and there are some solo pieces for each of the players. Part of the music on the cd was originally written for two vihuelas, but many of the pieces are arranged by the players themselves. On this cd Delitiae Musicae managed to combine 25 pieces of such a variety into a track list that feels like a concert programme.
